Wow! It’s hard to believe it has already been a year since we started Conejo365. We have met so many great people and learned so many new things about our communities. Look for us at festivals and other venues and stop by our booth to introduce yourself. We always have a little something special for our new friends.

Summer in the Conejo is loaded with events and this new issue of Conejo365 has more things to see and do than any of our previous magazines. All the more reason to hang onto Conejo365 to make sure you don’t miss anything . . . especially, with the kids out of school, out-of-town guests visiting and long summer days to take it all in.

If you prefer to receive electronic updates on all of the happenings in the area, just go to our website at www.Conejo365.com and register to receive our Thursday e-mail reminders of what’s going on for the upcoming weekend. It’s important to remember that many events are posted AFTER our quarterly magazine is printed, so our website and the corresponding Thursday e-mails will keep you current.

And, if you have an event coming up that you would like to promote, go to our website and submit your description. Your listing is FREE and we’ll help you spread the word.

Our first year of publishing Conejo365 has been amazing. We want to thank our thousands of readers and, importantly, our advertisers, who make it possible for us to make the magazine available at no cost to those in our fantastic communities. Buy local and support the merchants in our area who contribute so much to making the Conejo strong, vibrant, and a wonderful place to live.

Conejo 365 is THE event and entertainment guide to the Conejo. Hold on to it, use it often, and ENJOY!!!

Sincerely,

Mike Corridori
