The Conejo Valley is a wonderful place to live. It’s hard for me to say that Spring is my favorite time of the year, when every season is so amazing, but Conejo Spring is truly spectacular. With the sudden transformation of our golden brown hills to an almost fluorescent green and with the bounty of colorful wildflowers dotting the landscape, there is nothing like it.

As nature comes alive here, so do activities throughout the Conejo Valley. The number and diversity of things to do in our area is astounding – something for everyone – and Conejo365 is your connection to all of the happenings.

I get so many calls and e-mails from people asking how they can get their event listed in Conejo365. Well, it’s really easy. Just go to our website at www.conejo365.com and click on the “add your event” button and fill-in your information. (Quick Note: take a look at our online calendar before you pick a date for your event to see if there are other activities already scheduled that may conflict with yours.)

Be sure to subscribe to our weekly, e-mail newsletter, which will keep you current on all of the new terrific activities added after we have published our magazine each quarter. We’ll also give you a heads up when a deadline for posting in the magazine is coming due.

Finally, we want to thank our many advertising partners, who make it possible to bring you Conejo365. They are truly investing in our community, so please support these terrific, local businesses.

Stay in the know with Conejo365 and get the very most out of your Spring in the beautiful Conejo.

TINY PORCH CONCERTS PRESENTS “THE EAGLE ROCK GOSPEL SINGERS” WITH HAYLEY REARDON

Peter Strauss Ranch, 30000 Mulholland Dr., Agoura Hills

The Eagle Rock Gospel Singers began as a collective of friends getting together in the summer of 2010. A choir of up to 15 revived the old Gospel spirit with songs like “I Shall Not Be Moved,” “12 Gates,” and “In My Time of Dying.” Slowly, they evolved into a band of six, committed to embracing the richness found in early 20th century recordings. The band creates a unique style drawing from rhythm and blues, alt-country, indie rock and folk. General admission is free, but we ask for a donation. Donation boxes will be at the venue. Proceeds go to the artists and the Santa Monica Mountains Fund. Visit the website for more information or to purchase Limited VIP Reserved Seats.
